PART 8
CONDITIONS OF BREEDERS STAKES (Amended 1996)
(Derby and Oaks), Consolation Stakes and Irish Cup

158-Allotment of Trial Stakes.

Trial Stakes (or qualifying stakes) shall be run by coursing clubs selected in accordance with the Rules of the Irish Coursing Club.

159-Conditions of Entry. (Amended 2016)

- A- The Trial Stakes shall be advertised for not less than sixteen greyhounds (puppies), at whatever entry fee and for whatever prize money the Irish Coursing Club may decide upon or permit
- B- The stakes will be open to puppies only. Saplings will not be eligible to compete in trial stakes, and any sapling entered or that runs in a trial stake shall be disqualified, and the entry money and any prize money won by any sapling competing shall be forfeited.
- C- All greyhounds must be microchipped in compliance with the Microchipping of Dogs Regulations 2015.

160-Vouching for Owner.

Where both the owner and puppy are unknown to the committee of a club, the bona fides of the owner and the entry (or puppy) shall be vouched for by a representative member of the Irish Coursing Club, or the hon. secretary of a coursing club of which the applicant for entry is a member.

161-Disputes re Eligibility for Trial Stakes.

Any question or dispute relating to the eligibility of a greyhound to compete in a trial stake shall be referred to the Secretary of the Irish Coursing Club, who in consultation with such persons as he deems necessary, shall decide the matter.

162-Trial Stakes Not Run Out.

- A-All trial stakes shall be run out unless, in the opinion of the Stewards of the meeting, any of the greyhounds remaining in are, through accident, distress, or other legitimate cause, unfit to compete The greyhound which remains in shall be declared the winner.
- B-Should a division be unavoidable or permitted (after the semi-final) one of the dividers must be declared the holder of the nomination or entry by drawing lots or a toss of a coin, or as the Stewards may permit or decide under Rule 124.
- C- The declaration shall be made within seven days after the meeting, and none of the puppies concerned in the division can run in another trial stake until the required declaration is made. If a long division takes place before the semi-finals of the stake are run off, the event shall be considered abandoned.

163 Nomination for Derby and Oaks. (As amended AGM '92, 1996, 2007 and 2015)

- A- The winner of a trial stake shall have a right of entry to the Breeders Stakes (Derby and Oaks as the case may be).
- B-Should the winner be unable to compete, the dog beaten in the final shall have claim to the entry and failing either of them, the Secretary shall select by draw, a runner from the winners in stakes to be known as 'reserve trial stakes.'
- C-Should the full number of trial stakes not be run, and there not be available from the winners in reserve trial stakes sufficient numbers of greyhounds to substitute, the Secretary of the Irish Coursing Club may accept the entry of a puppy eligible to run in trial stakes from an individual owner or partnership at the entry fee as set out in Appendix 8(12).

- D-If any club which runs a trial stake or a 'reserve trial stake,' and names a representative fails to fill the place or fails to declare a candidate, they shall forfeit the entry and after all reserve trial stakes entries have been accepted, the best available puppy may be given the place in the event by the Secretary, as per C above.
- E-An owner or partnership shall not have more than two entries in the Derby or Oaks. He/they may however win an unlimited number of trial stakes. No transfer of ownership shall be effected once the draw has been made.
- F- The winner of a reserve trial stake for the Derby and Oaks will be eligible to compete in a trial stake.
- G- The winner of a trial stake is not eligible to compete subsequently in a reserve trial stake. The winners of reserve trial stakes', as notified to the Secretary of the Irish Coursing Club will be placed in order for selection by draw.
- H- The conditions for entry into reserve trial stakes are as set out for trial stakes.
- I. Reserves, as qualified herein above, may be permitted in the Derby and Oaks. The winners of all Reserve Dog and Bitch Trial Stakes, which are not already engaged in the Derby and Oaks may be listed as reserves and shall be eligible to fill vacancies that arise in the Derby and in the Oaks and in the stakes for greyhounds beaten in the first rounds of both the Derby and Oaks as required, provided they have run a course, in order of draw.

164-Reserves In Trial Stakes. (As amended AGM '92)

Reserves may be permitted under the conditions as set out in Rule 101.

165-Non Runner in Trial Stake-Owner's Responsibility.

- A- The owner or owners of the winner of a trial stake shall give immediate notice to the Secretary of the club which held the event, should death, accident, or any other cause prevent his/theirs puppy from running.
- B-Any person holding a nomination who fails to comply with the conditions as set out, or fails to fill the entry, may be required to give an explanation in writing to the Secretary of the Irish Coursing Club who, if not satisfied, may refer the matter to the Executive Committee, who may impose such penalties as they deem fit.

166-Greyhounds Eligible to Compete.(As amended AGM 1991 and 1996).

- "A-Only puppies registered in the Irish Greyhound Stud Book may compete in the Breeders Stakes (Derby and Oaks) .Puppies registered in a Stud Book which is a member of the International Alliance of Greyhound Registries are required to register in the Irish Greyhound Stud Book if they wish to compete in the Breeders' Stakes,(Derby & Oaks).
- B-A puppy registered in the Irish Greyhound Stud Book and owned by a non National shall be eligible to compete in trial stakes."

167- Trial Stake declared void.

When the number of entries received for a trial stake is less than eight, it may be declared void at the discretion of the Secretary of the Irish Coursing Club.

168-Consolation Stakes for Derby and Oaks. (As amended AGM 1989,1992,1993 and 1996 and 2005, 2013)

- A-Stakes known as the Consolation Stakes (T. A. Morris Stakes in the Derby and Kitty Butler Stakes in the Oaks) shall be instituted for not more than 32 dogs and bitches and reserves, selected by means of a draw from those eliminated in the first round of the Derby and Oaks respectively. In the event of the stakes not being filled from those eliminated from the Derby/Oaks, the remaining places will be allocated to reserves in the Derby/Oaks, selected by means of a new draw, provided these reserves have run a non competitive course.

B-A greyhound is ineligible for the Consolation Stakes if it has not run in the first round of the Derby and Oaks, or if it has been disqualified or withdrawn through injury or following a no course is withdrawn, or is withdrawn for any other reason. In the case of an undecided course, the greyhound losing the toss may be permitted to run with the permission of the stewards, since the judge considers that it has done sufficient to constitute a course.

C-The draw for the Consolation Stakes shall be made on termination of the first round of each event respectively and greyhounds as selected to compete as per A above, shall be drawn as if the stakes are new ones.

The reserves shall be drawn at the same time as the draw for each of the Stakes is made, marked by the letters A.B.C.D. and listed on the programme with the full particulars and code letters and shall be called in that order.

D-The stakes shall be subject to the Rules which apply to the Derby and Oaks.

169-Powers of Executive Committee re Trial Stakes. (As amended 1996)

The Executive Committee shall have full power over all arrangements with regard to the Breeders' Stakes and the National Meeting.

A- They may make any changes that they think proper or necessary in the conditions set out.

B-Debar or prohibit any person from holding a nomination

C-Disqualify any winner of a trial stake from competing in the Breeders' Stakes, if the owner is not considered by them a fit or proper person to hold a nomination.

D-If in their opinion, or that of the Stewards of the meeting, any greyhound entered is not considered bona fides; they may cause it to be withdrawn from the stake in which it is entered to compete, either before or after the draw, or disqualify the greyhound at any stage of the event, or afterwards, as they may decide without giving reasons for their action, except at their own discretion or to the Irish Coursing Club, if called upon to do so at the next meeting of The Club following the National Meeting, and it shall be within the powers of the Executive Committee to decide such matters (without notice to any person or persons interested) at a meeting held by them.

170-Champion Stakes. (As amended AGM 1989, 1992, 1995, 2004, 2007, 2015. 2016).

The Champion Stakes is an event for all-aged greyhounds with puppies specifically debarred. The event is open to all-age greyhounds competing in all-age stakes.
